DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 21-33 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on 6 February 2007.
2. Applicant's election with traverse of claims 1-20 and 34-43 in the reply filed on 6 February 2007 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the structure in claim 33 is similar to the method in claim 1. This is not found persuasive because the method may be performed by an apparatus having a materially different structure.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.
4. Claims 1-20 and 34-43 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The claims call for generating a calibration curve from an array of data, adjusting a sensor's output current based on the calibration curve, and then adjusting the calibration curve based on the calibration data and the sensor's current. It is not clear how this last step is possible, since the calibration curve is based on the calibration data; further, the specification of the application is drawn to making two adjustments to data obtained from a sensor, rather than one adjustment to sensor data and one adjustment to calibration data. The Examiner does not understand how this is possible, and fails to find support for the subject matter in the specification.
